The European Academy of Sciences established the Blaise Pascal Medal in 2003 to recognize an outstanding and demonstrated personal contribution to science and technology and the promotion of excellence in research and education. Up to nine medals may be awarded in any one year.

The European Academy of Sciences established the Leonardo da Vinci Award in 2009 for Outstanding Lifelong Achievement. One Award is given per year.

All EurASc Fellows can submit a prize/award nomination. Members and non-members are eligible.

The nominator must complete this form and provide, together with the (please see below), the following documents – merged into a single PDF:

- Award Nomination Form; (1 page)
- A letter of nomination;(1 or 2 pages)
- A recent CV of the candidate ;(maximum 5 pages)
- A list of the 10 most important publications of the candidate, including their number of citations (as indicated by Web of Science or Google Scholar) and /or invited Lectures, awards; (1 or 2 pages)
- 2 or 3 letters of support* (at least one of which should be from a Fellow of EurASc). (maximum 2 pages each)
     The nominator cannot write the letters of support, this means that the candidate has to be nominated by one Fellow member of EurASc and supported by, at least, one other member of EurASc.

If one of these documents is missing, the nomination will be considered invalid. The total length of these documents, when merged into a single PDF, should not exceed 15 pages.

Nominations for BPMedal should be submitted in the personal area* of each member before April 15th.
Nominations for LDV should be submitted in the personal area* of each member before January 15th.

The awardees will be announced in June, and the formal presentation will occur during the Annual Ceremony.

(The traditional method of sending nomination forms to the contact@eurasc.eu mailbox will still be available for those who prefer it.)
